Reading the Bible as an Introverted Thinker: Answers to Biblical Questions from a Logical Point of View

By John W Bannister

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Until recently, I didn't have much desire to read the Bible but forced myself often as this is what I was told I should be doing. I went to church, listening to the sermons and lessons intently every Sunday as well as participating in several initiatives of the denomination. While I found some fulfillment in my Christian life, it seemed as though something major was missing. After becoming frustrated from seeing very little progress in my spiritual growth towards God, I began reading the Bible trying to figure out just what I might be missing. I decided to find out how to develop that deeper relationship or die trying. As I began to discover the good news of Jesus Christ and the apostles, I saw discrepancies with what I'd known all my life. These things seemed small at first. As I reviewed and contemplated the scriptures and contexts, I began seeing God's love shining through more and more brightly. What I am discovering is redefining me in the freedom of God's grace. It is...
