Such language veils a hunger for God but a distaste for the church. Even in the church, Christians are asking, Is this what church is supposed to be? Many Christians sense deep down that there is supposed to be something more, but are unsure of what that something is. These longings can be fulfilled only by discovering God's true intent for His people. The mandate for our generation is to recover a vision for the church that comes from correctly reading Scripture. King Jesus Claims His Church presents a stirring, bold vision for the church that is both biblical and timely. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
